DeBurca Foreword

The Deburca Suffolk Flock was established in 2003 with foundation stock purchased from long established flocks across Ireland. Since then we have purchased in-lamb ewes from the top flocks throughout Ireland, England and Scotland. With the use of ET we are in the position to offer top pedigree Suffolk stock for sale.

Show Success

Over the years we have won numerous prizes in the show ring. In the west of Ireland in 2006 we had 4 firsts with the champion and reserve champion in the beginners class on the same day. We had a first in the Corrandulla Show with a ram lamb by Bawnogue Beaugatti and when Roscrea Sale came along a full brother came second in the novice class.

We entered the West of Ireland Club Championships in Corrandulla in 2007 and had success with 3 firsts. The same year we entered the South of Ireland National Championship Competition where we had a first in the hogget ram or older class won by a stock ram Carragh Casper – a son of Glenho Glanza. Just as we thought the year could not get any better we won the Novice Ram Lamb Class in Roscrea show and sale with Deburca Bounty. In 2009 we had the Champion Ram Lamb, Male Champion and overall Reserve Champion Deburca Deezer – an excellent ram with excellent pedigree and one of our main stock rams. All hoggets in the sale are out of him.

Flock Competition

The Deburca flock entered the flock competition in 2006 and 2007 with great success. The first year we came first in the 0-30 group and also won the Best New Entrant. In the second year we moved up a group to the 30-50 and came second.

After much consideration, I have decided to reduce the flock to a manageable 25 ewes this is due to family, work and football commitments. We enjoy having pedigree sheep and looking forward to our next crop of lambs every spring, always hoping for that elusive champion to arrive.

We retained only the best ewe lambs every year and feel that the females on offer are top quality.

Finally, we would like to thank everyone who supported me at this sale and wish them luck with their purchases.
